IN MEMORIAM

Colonel James S. Cook, Jr., was born on September 24, 1913, and died June 11, 1970. He epitomized the loyal, energetic and far sighted friend and supporter who has been so important to the continuity and development of Oak Ridge Military Institute. He was associated with Oak Ridge in various capacities for more than forty years.

Colonel Cook was a native of Graham, North Carolina. He entered Oak Ridge as a student in 1927 and graduated in 1931. While a cadet at Oak Ridge he completed four years of R.O.T.C. training and attended a summer encampment at Fort McClellan, Alabama. This qualified him for a commission as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Infantry Reserve when he reached the age of twenty-one.

Colonel Cook was called to active duty with the Army in 1942 and served throughout the war with the 3rd Infantry Regiment. Upon cessation of World War II, he received an appointment in the Regular establishment of the US Army. During his distinguished military career, Colonel Cook served in a number of positions in many parts of the world. In 1946 Colonel Cook returned to Oak Ridge Military Institute as Professor of Military Science and tactics.

In recent years Colonel Cook's service to Oak Ridge was as a member of the Board of Trustees and an officer of the Alumni Association. In these positions he was influential in all aspects of the Institute's activities. He played a major role in planning for and implementing the Forward March Program which aims to make Oak Ridge still bigger and better.

In the memory of Colonel James S. Cook, Jr., the 1970 edition of the Dress Parade is dedicated to a loyal and untiring friend of Oak Ridge.

What is

IN ACADEMICS...

The Library staff assisted the cadets in finding certain materials.

The administration and faculty at Oak Ridge made this an outstanding year in academics. Their primary goal was to give each student a sufficient background of knowledge for entrance into college. There were many new faculty members and also a new headmaster. Their new talents, along with the capabilities of the staff members remaining from last year, proved to be a highly successful combination.

The Chemistry Lab is well equipped with chemicals and supplies.

The Library and its facilities proved to be an excellent aid throughout the year.

"These comic books are just too far above my reading level!"

"This is the domain."

Always a discussion in Mr. Cole's classroom.

Among the modern teaching aids at Oak Ridge, is the language-lab system. It allows the student to drill in pronunciation and communication with the instructor as well as with tapes corresponding with the text.

Mr. Sellstrom prepares a lecture.

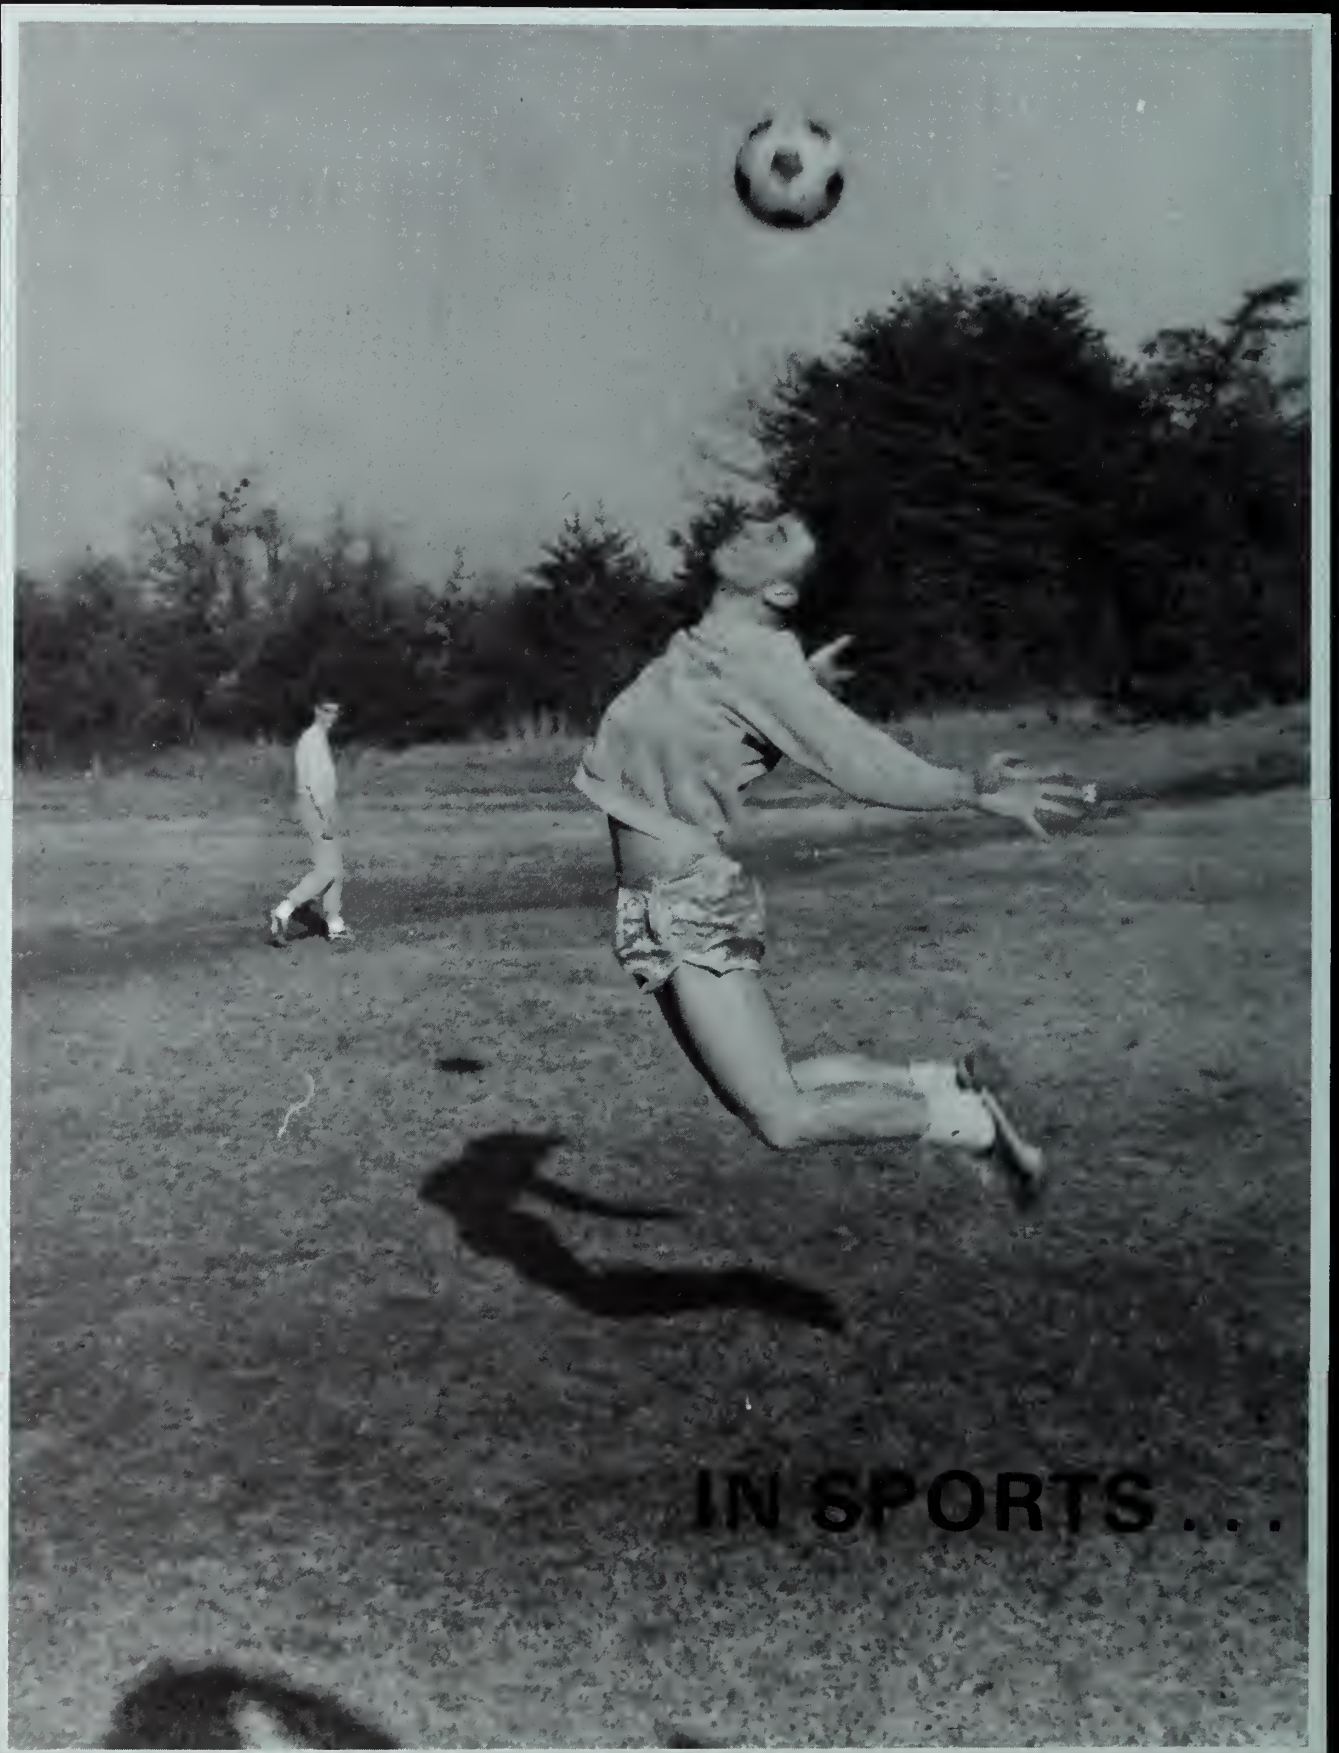

Many hours are spent studying.

The mathematics department displayed great versatility in instruction.

IN SPORTS . . .

The sports program was highly successful this year at Oak Ridge. Our football team displayed outstanding spirit and teamwork winning 3 of their 8 games. The basketball team had a winning season and participated in a close season tournament in Charlotte. This year also saw an addition of another sport at Oak Ridge. The sport was Soccer coached by Jim Millikan, Steve Sellstrom, and Bill Estes

IN MILITARY...

The various phases of Drill

“Left, Right, Left”

The Military program conducted this year at Oak Ridge was one of the most outstanding in the school's history. The efficiency of the Military Department and their knowledge of military organization was the main foundation for progress. Our Battalion Commander, Lt. Col. David T. Cox, put in many long, hard hours to make this a successful year.

GOLD STAR PLATOON

Commander
Cpt. Dwight Watson

1st/Sgt. David Marcone

Guidon Bearer
S.F.C. Charles Peters

The precision 1969-70 Goldstar Platoon won first place at the Vandy Invitational at Knoxville, Tennessee. It was commanded by cadet Cpt. Dwight Watson and 1st/Sgt. David Marcone. The concentration and long daily practices of the entire platoon contributed to the winning combination.

MOTHERS DAY EXERCISES, 1970

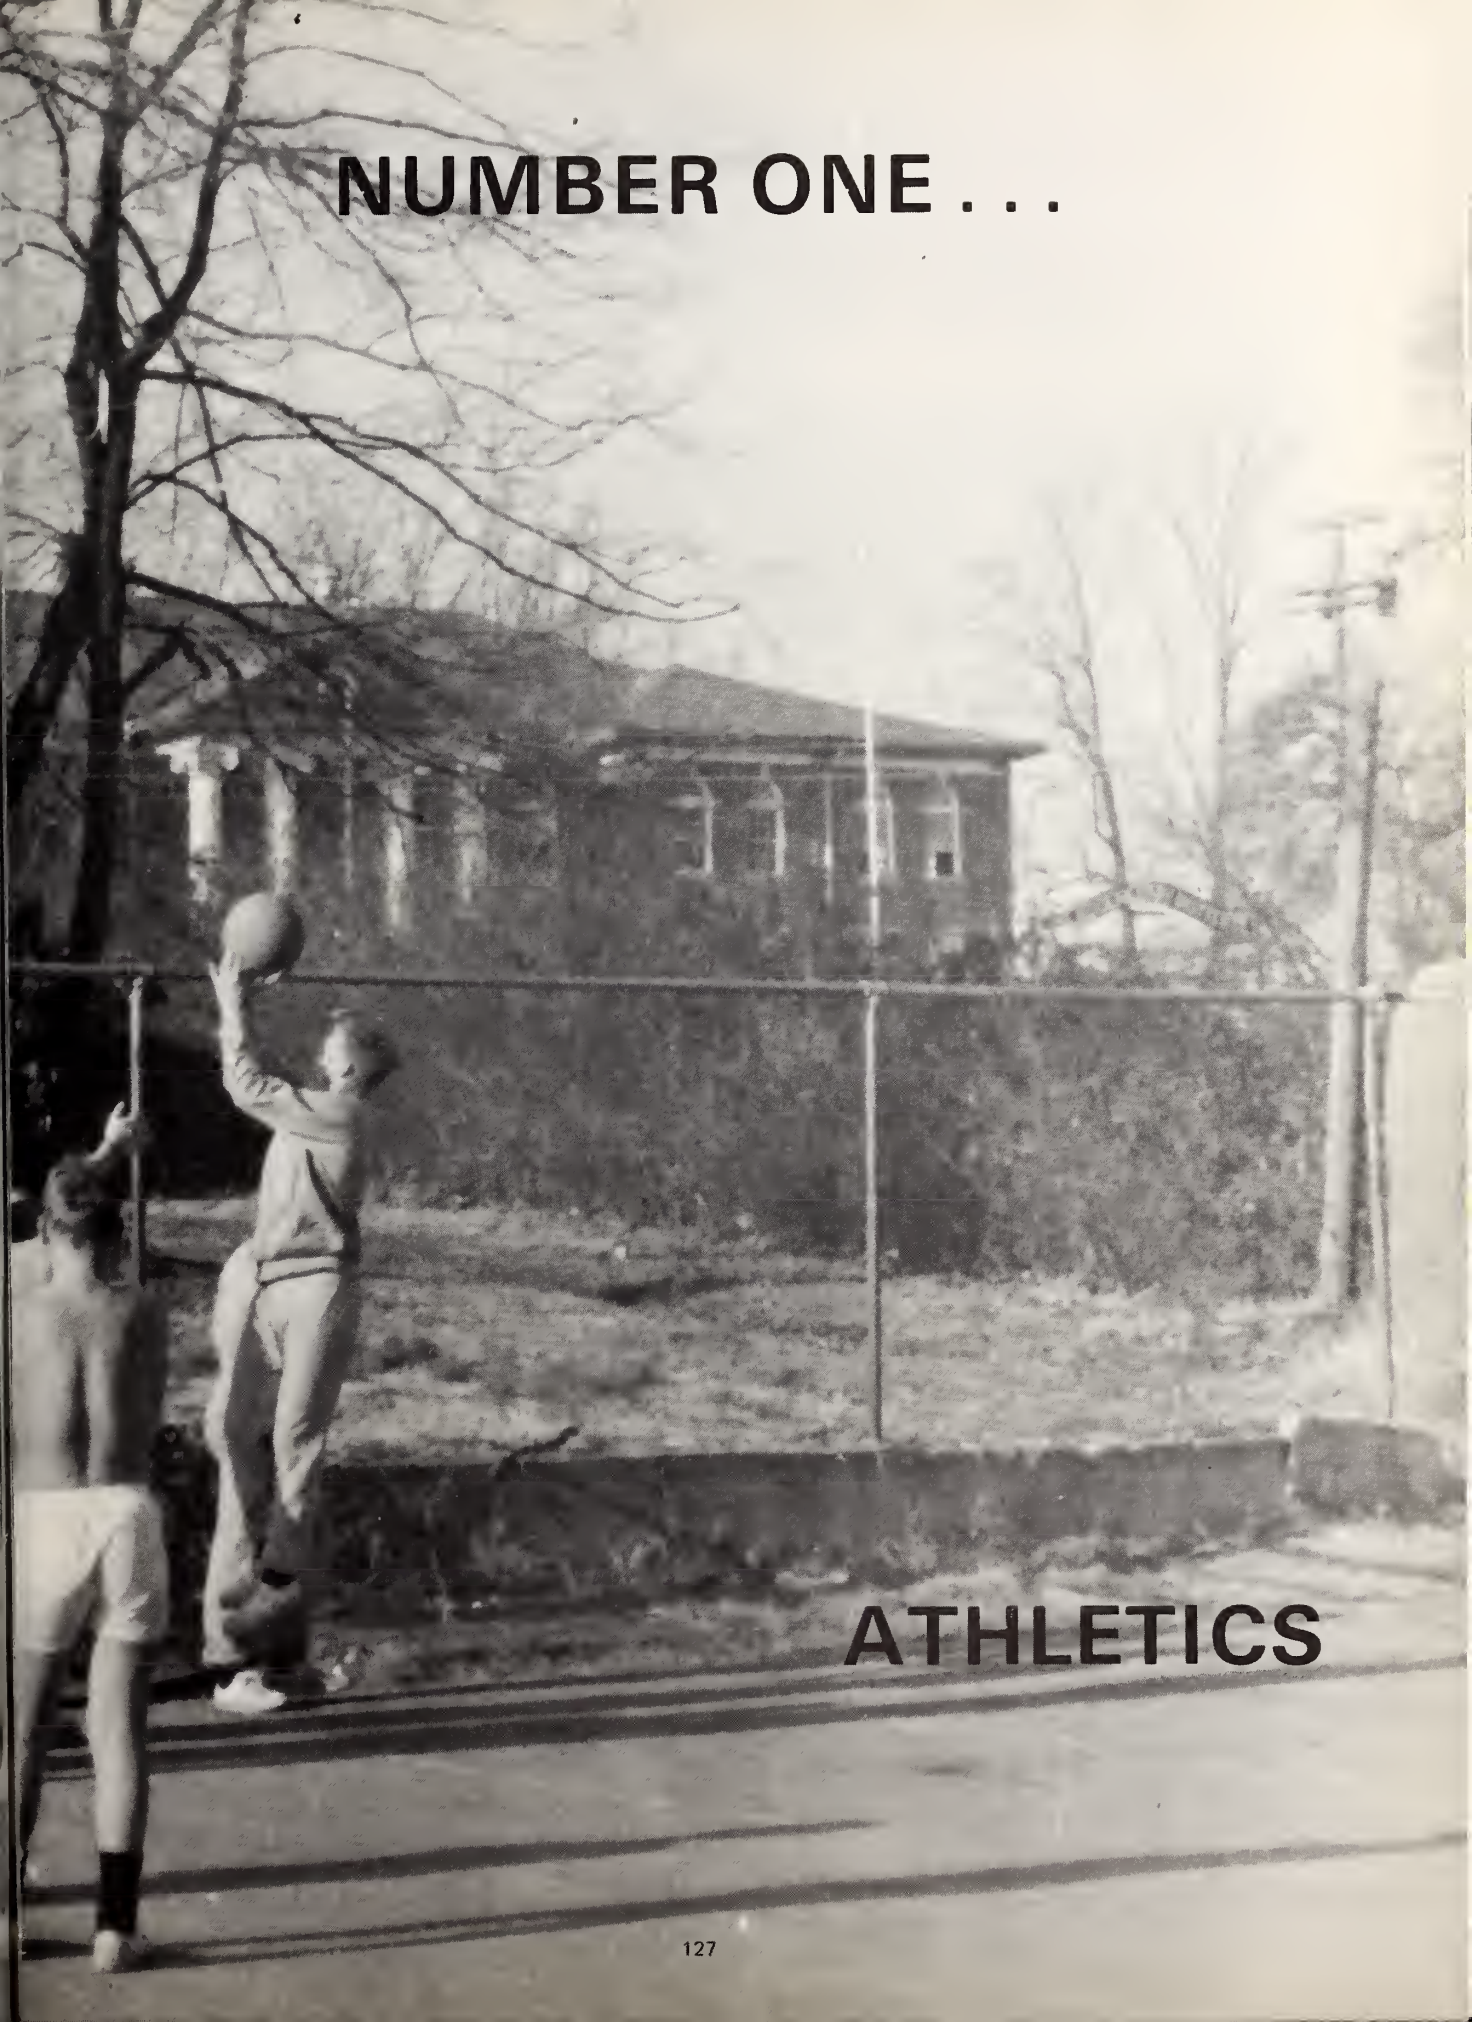

Each year Oak Ridge Military Institute honors the mothers of its cadets in exercises on the second Sunday in May. There are usually parent-teacher conferences, a mother and son reception, and a formal military review. The mother of the battalion commander is honored as Mother of the Year during the parade. This year Mrs. Callie Cox, mother of Lt. Col. David Cox, was our Honor Mother.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Oak Ridge Military Institute had its best football team in 32 years. It was only the second team within this time span, and it was proud to have had the best record. The team was coached by Lt. Col. Stuart M. Chandler. He was assisted by m/Sgt. Wayne McClamma, Daniel Marcone, Bob Barbera, and Bill Estes. Col. Chandler expects even a better team next year.

HOMECOMING 1969

Miss Jane Kiger, escorted by Bob Maner

Oak Ridge celebrated Homecoming this year for the first time in the school's history on September 27, 1969. It was a well – planned affair that will be remembered by the cadets for many years to come. The football game was played with Asheville School for Boys. Oak Ridge lost in an exciting game. Both teams played well. The most spectacular event of the day was the parade and the crowning of the queen, Miss Jane Kiger of Winston-Salem, a student at Elon College. She was sponsored by Alpha Company and escorted by Bob Maner.
